

I support media diversity

I oppose further consolidation of media ownership. American citizens should not be forced to hear, read, or see only that information expressing the view of only a few having multiple ownership of media.

Airwaves are public and should provide the public with a choice of views.

Sincerely,

Harrell J. Huffman